FACES IN CHARGE

The 1998-99 school year brought along a lot of changes to the faculty. Block scheduling was introduced to Powell Valley High. A different schedule including longer class time, and creative lesson plans were responsible for a multitude of adjustments by faculty members such as Coach Mitchell and Coach Carter. School nurses, Regina Poff and Cathy McClanahan, administer a dose of tender loving care to Mr. Baker.

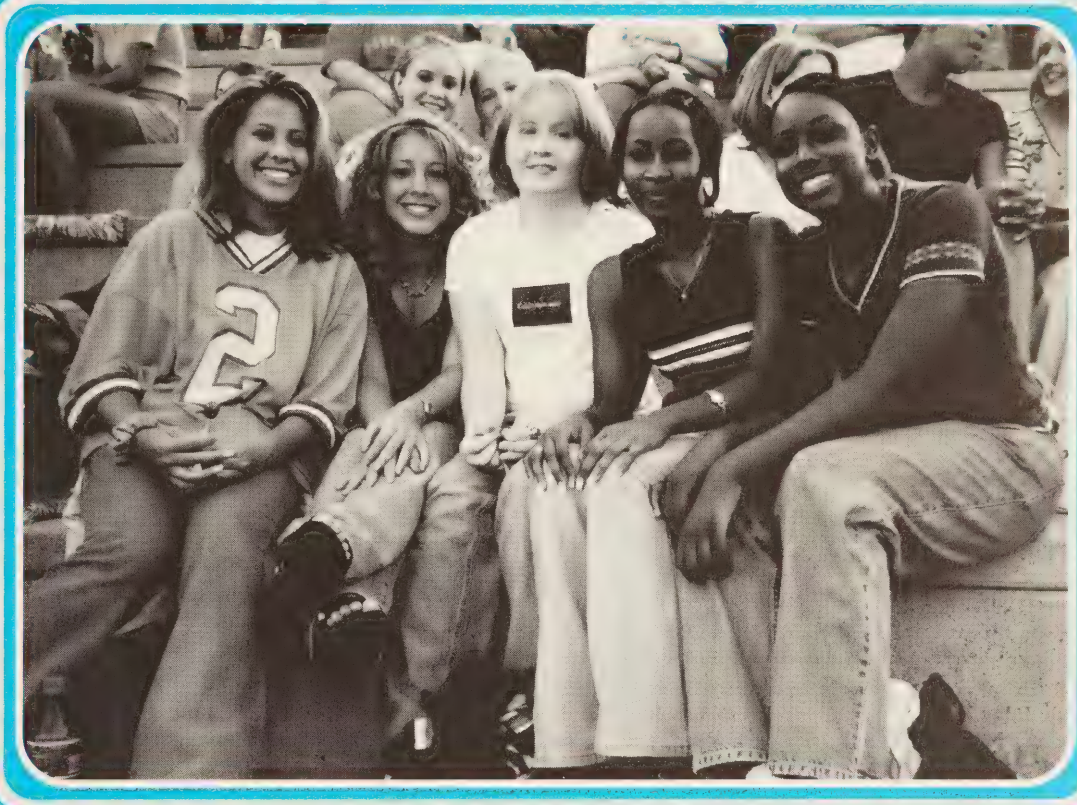
FAMILIAR FACES



Returning to school after a summer vacation of fun can sometimes be dreaded. But despite the miserable heat, the students at Powell Valley were ready to enter the halls and search for "Familiar Faces". Savoring memories of the summer made the transition from vacation to "back to school" much easier. Academics, athletics, and other activities helped turn the first few days into an exciting experience.

PICK-UP LINES

If I rearranged the alphabet, I'd put U and I together.
— Ashley Jones

I hope you know CPR, 'cause you take my breath away!
— April Adkins

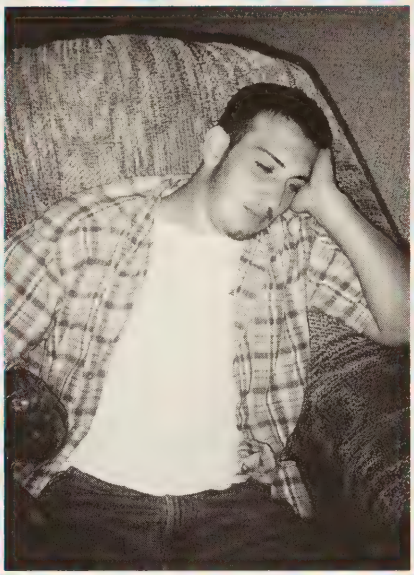
Hey girl, I know milk does the body good, but how much have you been drinking?
— Matt McCoy

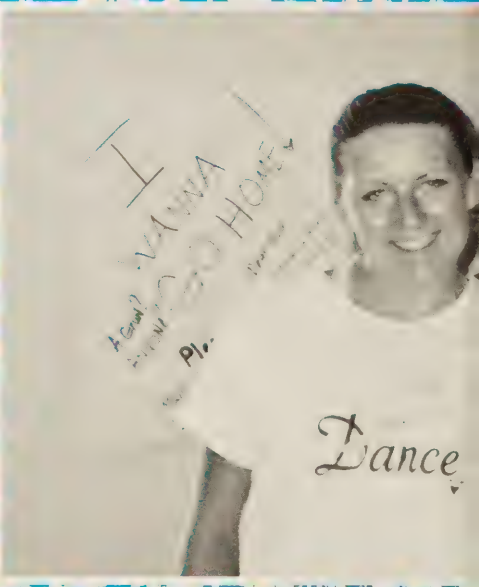
This isn't my pick-up line but it was used on me . . at dinner one night when the drinks arrived, my date stuck my finger in his tea and when I asked why, he said that his tea wasn't sweet enough and now it was.
— Leigha Sturgill

Who needs pick-up lines when you're me?
— Justin Callahan

Tell me honey, did it hurt . . when you fell from heaven!
— Jason Gilley

You're so fine, you could run through sand.
—Jake Stepp





PICK-UP LINES

Your parents must be thieves....'cause they stole the stars from the sky and put them all in your eyes.
—Tiffany Fleming

Can I show you my stamp collection..... at home?
— Tim Friedrich

I know your mind is wandering because I'm catching your every thought.
—Shea Chapman

Hey baby, want to take a ride in my Mustang?
— Josh Warren

Where are your wings, girl.... cause I know an angel when I see one.
— Donnie Bishop

Hey, let's go cruise in town and play music too loud while wasting gas and blocking the traffic!
— Jason Hunsaker

Excuse me, I lost my phone number, can I have yours?
— Matt Coughlin

Girl, are your feet tired . . . cause you have been running through my mind all day!
— Julius Jones

Most Memorable Moments

My most memorable moment was during the USA Main Event Wrestling Match that came to Carnes Gym in May '97. The "Nature Boy", Buddy Landell, punched his opponent's girfriend! I was shocked! She fell at my feet and didn't get up. We tried to help but she laughingly refused. HMMM.... Who says wrestling is fake?!!
— Chris Kilgore

The best thing that happened to me was in tenth grade when I finally learned to read.
— Vince Large

Most definitely . . . . my first day of Steak and Gravy
— Dylan McAfee

I broke my wrist in gym when I fell off the rim. It was the first time I dunked a ball!
— Larry Jessee

During A.P. History class, Coach Mitchell asked why the Mormons had women suffrage. Priya Paranthaman stood up and began to explain that the women suffered because their husbands had multiple wives. Mr. Mitchell screamed, "No, that's stupid! It means they have the right to vote!"
— Sara Bradshaw

Rebecca Fleenor prepares to enter the exciting world of GYM class!

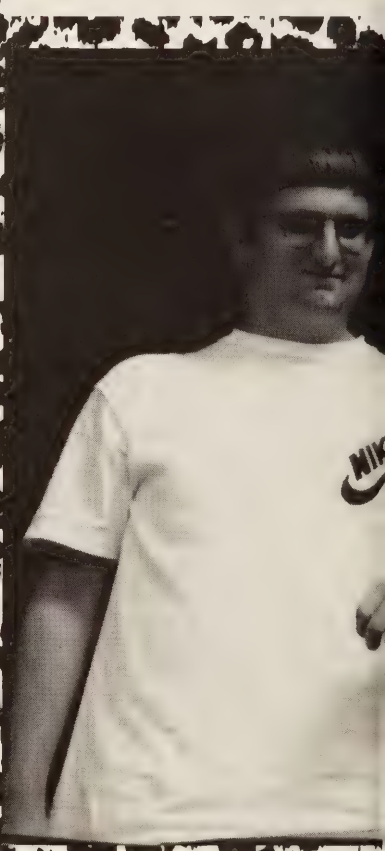
Jessica Bryington and Robyn Richardson and Gina Fields are friends forever.



Brandon Bledsoe and

Martha Phillips . . . what were they thinking??

Josh Shoop receives some attention on Senior picture day from Emily Allen.

Chris Wampler finds a dedicated supporer in Jon Clarkston.

Gettin' Involved

It's not always easy having to juggle after-school activities with actual school work, but these students find ways to do it . . .

"I get all of my school work done at school, or at least I try. Then sports always come second. Block scheduling has made it easier because I have more classroom time to get my assignments done."
— Sheldon Adams

"My motto is, 'I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me'. If I am feeling stressed out about school or sports and need uplifting, I just take a break and pray about it."
— Jessica Hargrove

"I stress out and yell at my mother. My schedule is always full and it makes things hard to handle, but somehow I guess I manage."
— Rachel Bradshaw

" Naturally, wrestling comes before anything. Schoolwork, due to my natural learning abilities, is finished in much less time." — Josh Shoop

IN THE FACES

Let's Face It . . . we have come to face another year at Powell Valley High School. The seniors, our faces of the future, finally prepare to enter the world. The time is quickly approaching when there will be no more daily walks down the crowded hallways . . . walks will be across a large campus or even across a crowded work place. The juniors are emerging from three long years as underclassmen and prepare to take over the reigns of the school. The changing faces of the sophomores are constantly maturing as they have eventually mastered the ropes of high school. Finally, the new faces of the class of 2002 have adjusted after toughing out the first year, and are ready to conquer the rest of the "dreaded" high school ladder!!

CROWD

'98 - '99

FACES OF THE

Now that we are finally Seniors, it is time to face the reality of change that we will experience once we enter the world outside Powell Valley High School. Many classmates will move far away, perhaps never to be seen again. But our memories, chronicled among these yearbook pages, will serve us in reminiscing about our joys and successes, our trials and tribulations, and friendships that have endured and flourished through our years together. As our Senior year comes to a close, let us leave these hallowed halls with pride and knowledge to succeed in all our endeavors. May we face our future with curiosity and dignity, never forgetting our values, great friendships, and laughter we have all shared.

CLASS OF 2000

As emerging Seniors, the junior class of the 1998-99 school year will be the 40th graduating class of Powell Valley High School. There were many exciting events that took place this year for the class of 2000. Class rings were delivered to eager juniors in the fall of '98. The prom was also an exciting event for juniors, as they spent countless hours transforming the gym into a beautiful landscape.

FRIENDLY FACES

There are numerous ways for the students to get involved at PVHS. Our clubs are just a few of them. During their scheduled meetings, important business is discussed. If nothing happens to be going on, the club will meet just to see where they stand. Clubs at Powell Valley are very involved outside of school hours, whether it's the Forensics performing their one act play or the French club celebrating their annual Mardis Gras. Everything accomplished by a club is not always recognized, but great leadership provided by club sponsors will keep the "friendly faces" climbing higher mountains of success!

Student Council Association

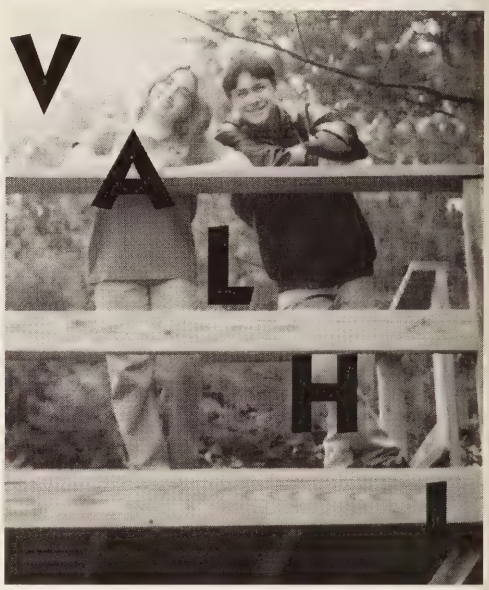
The SCA is a group of erudite students who possess great leadership qualities and are dedicated to the betterment of our school. They spent countless, unacknowledged hours thinking of new ways to improve our school, and the atmosphere that it emits. They are also responsible for some of the extracurricular activities that are offered. Officers for the 1998-99 school year are President, Monica Amburn; Vice-President, Benji Bolling; Secretary, Leighann Barnette; Treasurer, Brandi Collins.



The Valhi, our school newspaper, was originally founded in the early years of Powell Valley High School. The staff works extremely hard to write articles that pertain to the student's interest and produce a great newspaper. This year's staff includes Benji Bolling, Rachel Bradshaw, Jessica Bryington, Erin Carty, Aaron Davis, Michelle Dickenson, Doug Gibson, Destiny Jones, Michael Meade, D.J. Neace, Marie Neace, Martha Phillips, Vivek Rama, Chris Rogers, Kristy Ryan, Rachel Sexton, Mandy Sharpe, and Elizabeth Weatherly.

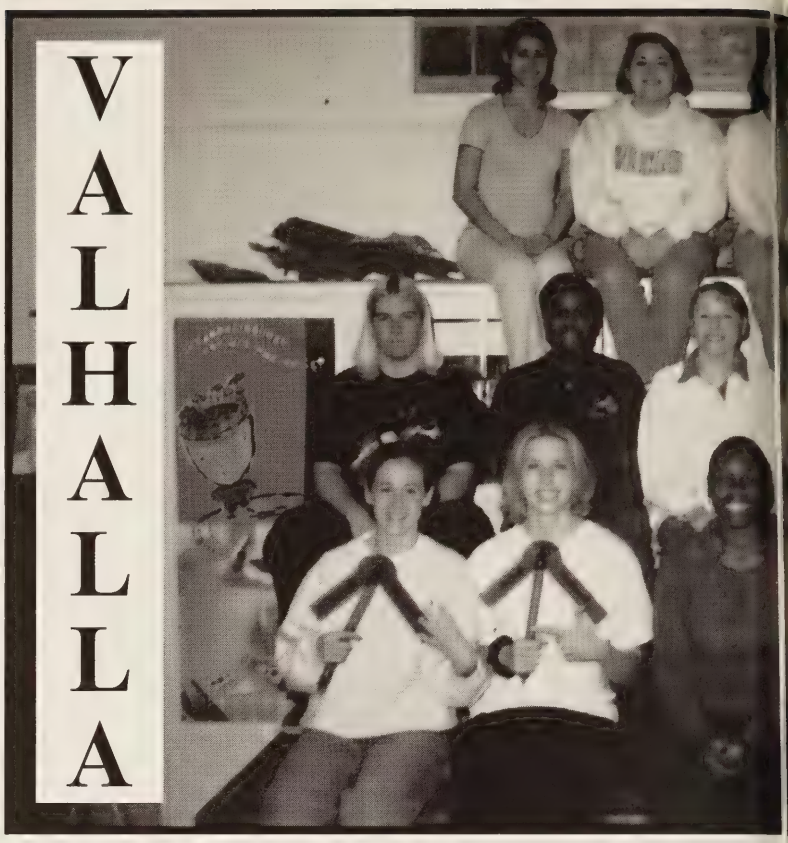
VALHALLA



The 1998- '99 Valhalla yearbook staff has put in long hours of brainstorming, photography, and marketing to bring the best yearbook ever to the students at PVHS. Long hours were spent trying to obtain financial support from our community and student body. We also tried to capture a variety of people and situations throughout the pages. It was through teamwork, perseverance, and guidance from Mrs. Hunsaker, our sponsor, that we successfully achieved a book of memories that will be cherished. "Let's Face It,"..... it's been a great year!

The French Club is open to anyone who is or has studied French. Anyone who has completed three years of the language becomes an honorary member.

The goal of the club is to provide opportunities and activities that will help students to become familar with the culture of French.

During the year, the club sponsors a banquet and volleyball tournament with the Spanish Club. They also sponsor a Mardi Gras celebration in the Spring. This year the club went to New York to see a musical based on stories from French literature.

Club officers are Cindy Begley, Chris Sturgill, Sadrina Burney, Sabrina Jervis, Anna Lester, Monica Amburn, and Hanna Shuler.

LEADING FACES

Although Powell Valley is well-known for its outstanding athletic department, academics are by far the most vital. Behind the doors of this institution stands a strong, firm academic program. Senior honor students, students participating in different pace programs, and the general school population are all offered a wide array of opportunities to excel on an intellectual level. Top: Members of our summer governor's school program were Marie Neace, Erin Carty, Richard Horne, Benji Bolling, and Kevin Ward. Right: Rachelle Chase and Lindsey Davis prepare for the PSAT given annually during October.

Senior Honors

Senior Honor Students consist of all graduating seniors who have maintained a 3.3 GPA or above. This years's students include, alphabetically, April Adkins, Monica Amburn, Cynthia Baker, Leighann Barnette, Patrick Boyer, Sara Bradshaw, Will Campbell, Michelle Cross, Lindsay Davis, Jason France, Catherine Franklin, Tim Friedrich, Jason Gilley, Sara Gilliam, Donna Hall, Richard Horne, Jason Hunsaker, Patty Johnson, Marie Jones, Crystal Maddox, Matt McCoy, Marie Neace, Eddie Phillips, Kristy Ryan, Adrienne Sanders, Hanna Shuler, Wendi Stacy, Josh Warren, Ronald Wilson, Crystal Winebarger, Jessica Witt, and Brook Zirkle. FACES FROM AFAR

Tobias Frisch

Joining us from Germany is Tobias Frisch. This year Tobias was a member of the cross country team. He also plans to participate on the wrestling and basketball teams. His favorite thing about Powell Valley High School are the extracurricular activities that the school offers. He says the town is smaller but he actually likes seeing familiar faces.

Tim Friedrich

Tim joined us from Berlin, Germany. It was hard for him to adjust to living in a small town after coming from a city of four million people. In Germany, Tim played football on the Berlin All-Star Team and continues his interest by playing on the PV football team. When asked what he liked the most about PV, he replied, "Most definitely...OUR SCHOOL PRIDE!"

Xia "Sher" Ren

Cher joined us this year from Beijing, China. She says that the hardest thing to get use to is that her city is full of stores and in Big Stone Gap there is not too much to choose from. Cher says that she really enjoys her fellow students and teachers at PV, although the school and town is very small. She says that the best thing about PV is watching the football team play.

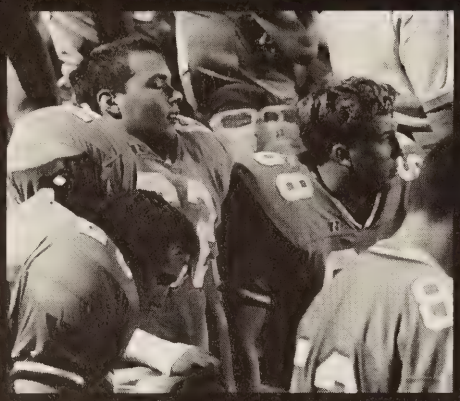
THAT FACES



Talented athletes and an exceptional ability to overcome any level of competition are not hard to come by. Whether it is another state championship title being brought home by the football team or records being broken on the track, there is always a strong desire in the hearts of Powell Valley athletes to excel in whatever they are doing. The students who participate give up long hours of their day to practice, with hopes of perfecting their every performance. With the successes coming from previous seasons, there is never a doubt about another winning season. Continued success is always a number one goal for a true Viking and with the championship titles received and the records being broken, Viking fans are sure that nothing less will be achieved.

SLAM

The Varsity Basketball team struggled this season with unexpected setbacks tha hampered their playing game. The Vikes remained "true blue" by rallying towar the end of their season with an exciting winning streak. On February 2, 1999 packed Powell Valley house witnessed a 54-52 win over the top ranking Kell Indians, after two overtimes. Spirit and emotion ran high as the Vikings continued to battl overwhelming odds for a respectable standing in the LPD. True blue, the Vikes overa standing was 11-11 and 7-5 in the distrct. Way to hustle "Big Blue!"

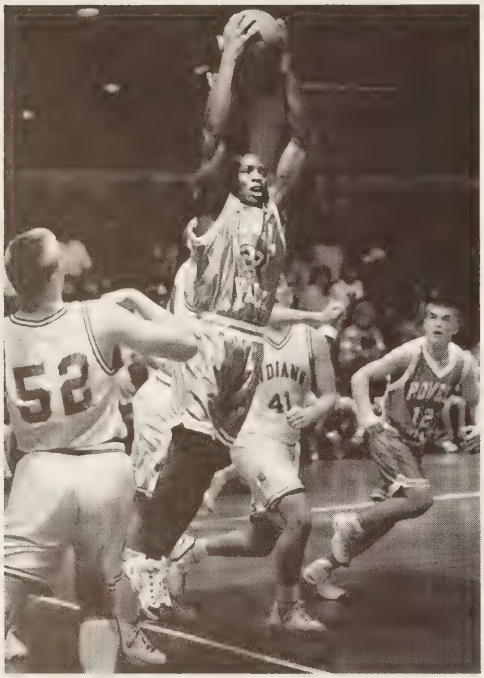
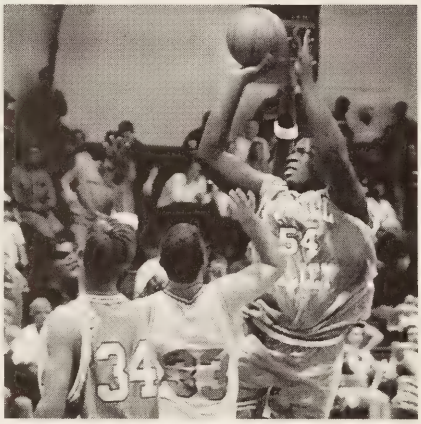
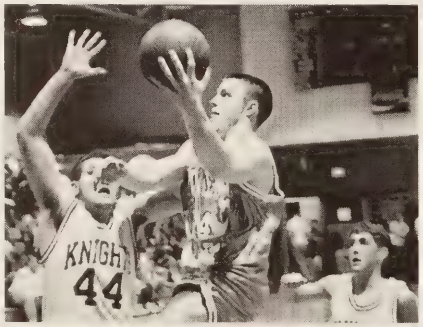
REBOUND



The 1998-99 basketball Vikings began the season with high hopes. The twice defending district tournament champion team were led by tri-captains Matt McCoy, Josh Warren, and Julius Jones. The trio were entering their third year of playing starting roles on teams that had won championships and advanced their junior year to the VHSL State Tournament. Senior lettermen Dylan McAfee and Jake Stepp, along with fellow senior Seth McCoo gave the Vikes an experienced nucleus. Great expectations were dashed soon after a tough two point loss in the Coal Classic finals, when the team went south on a six game tailspin. Injuries, the defection of three sophomores, and lousy shooting were the chief culprits. At press time, the team had rallied for a seven game winning streak, and a 11-11 record, finding the magic as the Lonesome Pine District Tourney began.





Above Top: Julius Jones grabs the rebound to take the ball down the court for another two points. Above: Josh Warren flies over the competition with an easy jumper. Go, Dylan, Go!

The Junior Varsity Basketball Team of 1999 was fueled by enthusiasm and dedication to hard work. Members were; Dustin Jackson, Manager, Shelly Wade, Coach Jimmy Mitchell, Lance Parsons, Evan Burton,Travis Miller, Shawn Wade, Scott Williams,Travis Fannon, Larry Sturgill, Jeremy Warren, Sheldon Adams, and D.J. Neace.

SCORE

Scott Williams shoots to score on a foul shot. Supported by his teammates, the J.V. squad consistently racked up points.

Great free throws, foul shots, rebounds, and assists dominated the J.V. team's game. Three sophomores, Scott Williams, Dustin Jackson, and D.J. Neace are definitely primed for Varsity action next year. The returning 9th grade boys will have experience as a teaching tool for team action in 2000. As a group they experienced a successful season by playing hard and putting forth an organized effort. There were no individual stars playing on this team, instead a stellar group of talented athletes dominated the basketball court.

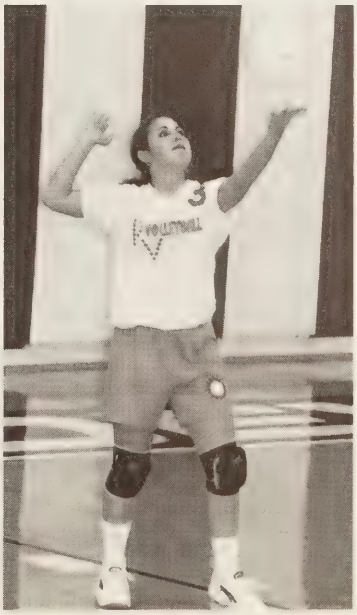
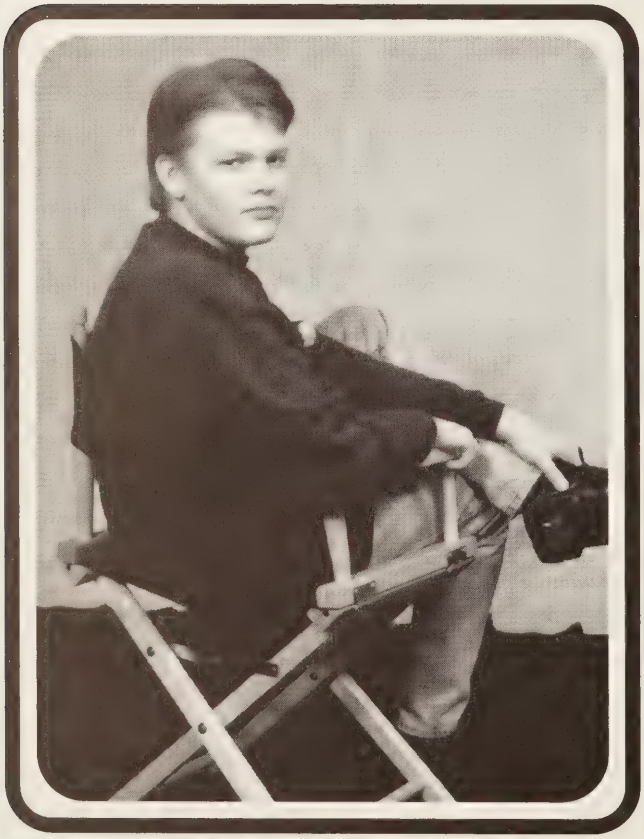
The J.V. Volleyball Team started from scratch this year. All but one player were new comers to the sport. Losing only one sophomore after the season, the Lady Vikings have high expectations for the next year. Right, the girls set for defensive strategy. Left, Renee Beason serves to score.



PERFORMING FACES



Adrianne Sanders and Kevin Ward were nominated by their senior peers and voted Mr. and Miss Powell Valley High School. Adrianne said, "Receiving this honor has probably been the highlight of my high school career. I plan on pursuing a college degree in psychology with a future in counseling. My high school years were stepping stones preparing me to pursue this goal." Kevin Ward summed up his high school years with the following quote.....,"It is good to have an end to journey toward; but it is the journey that matters, in the end." — Ursula K. Le Guin.

MISS P.V.H.S. PAGEANT

SPIRIT

This year Spirit Week and Homecoming were two very exciting, fun-filled weeks. During the week of Homecoming, classes were busy making signs and decorations to cover the upstair's hall in red, white, and perfect blue. Friday afternoon during school, there was an hour-long pep rally. Throughout the pep rally, students participated in numerous games and cheers. The Vikings beat the J.J. Kelly Indians that night, while Crystal Maddux was crowned the queen. The week of the PV-Appy game was named Spirit Week! On Monday, students came to school dressed in their pajamas. Wednesday was designated Twin Day and Thursday was Camo Day! On Friday, students wore their school colors with pride. The Vikings were victorious, whipping Appalachia, 42-7!

Queen of the Night

Football Homecoming 1998 was held on October 16. Powell Valley played J.J. Kelly and defeated them 55-0. This year a new tradition began with the election of four senior representatives, three junior representatives, and two representatives from both the sophomore and freshman class. Senior, Crystal Maddux, was crowned the new, 1998 Homecoming Queen.

Homecoming activities included a pep rally that recognized all the candidates and showed support for the football team. The event was topped off by a dance on Saturday evening. It was a weekend of fun and excitement for all. We would like to thank everyone that made the event a success and give a special congratulations to Crystal!

BASKETBALL

Basketball Homecoming festivities were held on Friday, February 5, during half-time at the Powell Valley and Appalachia game. (Above) This year's candidates from the Freshmen class were Megan Bays and Evan Burton, Knetta Jones and Jamie Bishop. (Below) The candidates from the Sophomore class were Lauren Moses and Brad Durham, Renee Beason and Clifford Hubbard.

HOMECOMING

(Above) Representing the Junior class were Brandi Collins and Ben Bolling, Sally Potter and Derek Burke. (Below) Senior candidates were Knetris Jones and Matt Coughlin, Wendi Stacy and Robert Clark. Knetris Jones and Robert Clark were crowned as the 1999 Basketball Homecoming Queen and King. Following the game, a dance was held to celebrate the win over Appalachia. Everyone danced the night away to the DJ skills of Freddie Bradley.

The concert choir has had an outstanding year. The Fall Concert was a Broadway Revue in which the students acted out scenes from musicals and sang. The Holiday Concert was held at the First Assembly of God. The choir is working towards the Spring Concert while learning about each musical period in time. They are also anticipating the arrival of new dresses and tuxedos in the spring of '99.

Senior All-District Choir

1998-99 Choir Officers:
President: Marie Neace
Vice President: Bobbie Clarkston
Secretary: Stephanie Vincent
Treasurer: Jessica Bryington
Librarian: Shelly Wade

Two Powell Valley freshmen made the Junior All-District Choir; Travis Rogers and Makayla Daniels. They participated in a workshop and concert at Marion High School on March 5 and 6.

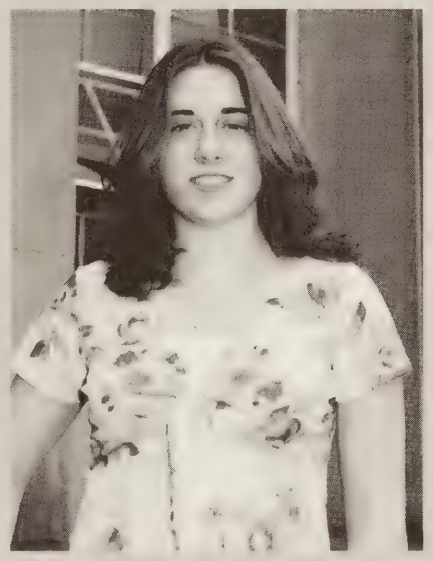
Chamber Choir



Senior All-District Auditions were open to all sophomores, juniors, and seniors enrolled in choir class. Twenty-six Powell Valley High School students scored high enough to make the choir. The workshop and concert was held at Pulaski High School on February 12 and 13, 1999.

Left: Marie Neace, the choir President was chosen to go to governor's school for voice this past summer. She spent four weeks in Richmond taking choir, music theory, and music history classes. Also, Marie auditioned and made Virginia Music Educators Association Honors Choir. This is the most select choir for which a high school student can be chosen. She participated in the workshop and concert at the VMEA conference at "The Homestead" in November 1998.

FACE THE MUSIC

PV Majorettes include, Johnnie Woodward, Amber Qualls, Andrea Vanwinkle, and Sarah Roop. Upper right, senior, Beulah Bowen, Tabitha Stines, and Amanda Bolinsky play some jazzy tunes on their clarinets. Drum Major, Tiffany Carroll, leads the Marching Band during the McChesney Festival toward rave reviews. Striking uniforms and precision performances enhanced their presentations during half-time entertainment this past fall. Pep rallies rocked with spirit as the band played on during the 1998-99 athletic season. Improved performance, larger group participation, and enthusiasm among band members brought success and recognition to the "Marching Vikings."

Powell Valley's Marching Band began their season back during the summer with band camp. Since that time in July, they haven't stopped. Aside from performing at all football games, home and away, the "Marching Vikings" participated in two festivals. They were included the Lonesome Pine Festival at Wise and the Clinch River Festival at Tazewell. The band also hosted the annual McChesney Festival at Bullitt Park. As the season ends for the marching band, the concert band goes into full swing. The season was kicked off with Pace Band, lasting from January to April. In the midst of all this activity, JR and SR District competitions were being held. JR District competition was held at Lee High School and sponsered by Powell Valley Band Boosters. SR District competition was held at Grayson County High School. The concert band also took part in the district concert band competition in March and traveled to St. Louis, Missouri in April for yet another competition.

SWEETHEART 1999

The 1999 Key Club Sweetheart was crowned during the Basketball Homecoming Dance on February 5. This year's candidates were Tiffany Fleming, Crystal Maddux, Knetris Jones, Brook Zirkle, 1999 Sweetheart Jessica Witt, April Adkins, Leighann Barnette, April Kleineick, Hanna Shuler, and not pictured Sabrina Jervis.

The students, faculty, and administration will certainly miss the warmth and humor of Mr. Jim Willis. After 34 years of teaching, we're certain he is more than ready to retire. His zest for life has influenced his classes at Powell Valley High. Dancing the night away, weight lifting, travel, and spiritual enlightenment are all on Mr. Willis' retirement agenda. Everyone at PVHS wishes love, laughter, and happiness for Mr. Willis' future! Enjoy your retirement!

FACES TELL THE

" No Limits Records is my favorite recording label. Listening to music relaxes and inspires me to get through a long, hard day at school." Darnell Keith says his tunes have always been an important part of his life. "Hip-hop is probably my favorite style of music, but I listen to all kinds of artists. ars to come!

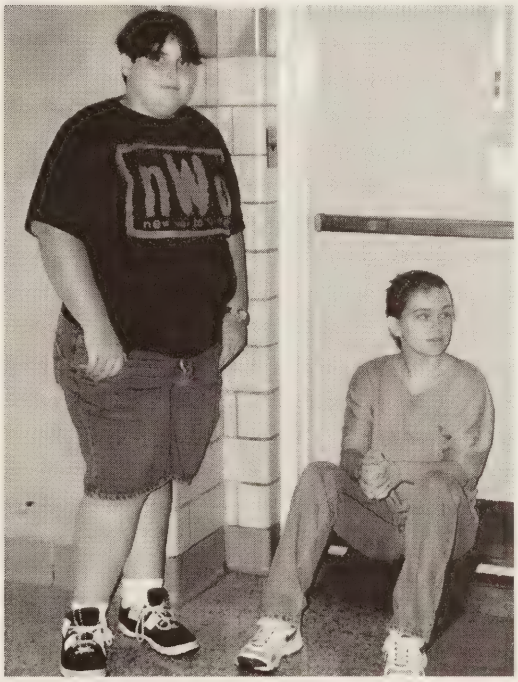
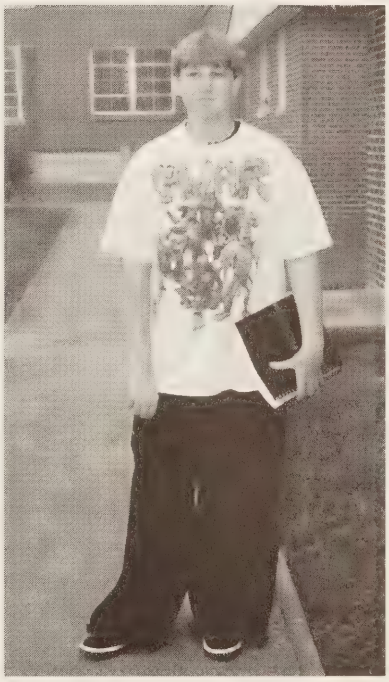
Socializing has always been a major part of the high school experience. B.J. Hughes says that he'll miss arguing with Robert Clark over his truck. "The debate of Ford versus Chevy actually gave me bursts of energy to stay awake during class. I'm really going to miss that debate." Robert agrees that it has been a challenge holding his own against B.J. and others who would tear down his beloved Ford.



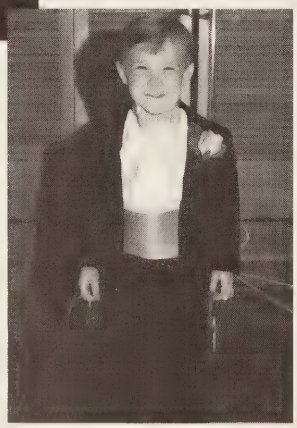


A typical teenager doesn't pride themself on being neat. Leigha Sturgill says, "There are other priorities." Tara Beth Sturgill, J.P. Terry, and Tiffany McKinney, (above left), all say they won't miss clean-up in Family Life. Another burning issue...., "Can I make it to class if I wait 2 more minutes?", Jon Hunsaker asked. The answer was 3 tardy slips and a stint in ISS. The gym hall has been a favorite refuge in the morning and afternoon. Adam Rogers and Jennifer Dickenson, (above right), continued the tradition of holding up the wall before morning classes.

Melanie Leigha Sturgill

She demands full attention,
Her eyes make it clear.
She's in control of the situation,
And she is loving and she is dear.
She changes with each passing day,
And some things I must remember,
Cherish the days we are together,
And thank God for this daughter born in May.

This era will pass so quickly, and the present stresses will seem insignificant and remote. What will matter to you at the end of life will be the loving relationships you built with your family and your readiness to meet the Lord.



Aaron,
We love you and all that you are.
Dad, Mom, and Rebecca

Brian Chandler, we are proud of you and all the things you have accomplished.
Love, Mom and Dad

Cradled in our arms, we held
you. And we loved you more as each day passed by. Through joy and pain, through the sunshine and the rain, we don't believe it's time to say goodbye.
We don't know what the future brings you, but we hope you'll keep Heaven as your goal. Do remember our request before you go.....Just be aware, when we finally make it home to stand before God's throne. When we look around to view, it isn't you to be there too.
It's not as many miles you've travelin', but every place you go Jesus has been. It's not on why lose you've been in' but the trials of your faith will make you strong. Facing dangers unknown
God won't allow what you can't bear.
Our prayer is that your faith will bring you home.

You are the gumption that karts
our heart and lights up our lives,
YOU DO DIGGIT!
Love, Mom, Dad, Jeal ing day

Sabrina,
The Lord has blessed us with our sunshine for 18 years. We know you will spread it everywhere you go, and with whatever you do in life.
Love you always,
Dad, Mom, and Franky

Justin,

It is impossible to express just how proud we are of you. You have accomplished many things in these few short years, and you already know the direction you want to take after graduation. Although the path may at times be rough and rocky, with hard work and perseverance, you can see the desires of your heart become a reality.

Whatever circumstance you find yourself in, always remember: "Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you saying, 'This is the way; walk in it.' Isaiah 30:21."

Listen to the voice — it will always guide you in the right direction.

We love you, Dad, Mama, Kent & Brittany

Our Miss America-Whitney Brook Zirkle

Congratulations! You have reached a very important point in your life. You have been very successful and we are extremely proud of the young woman you have become. We wish you the best as you set out on the next adventure of your life. You are intelligent and we know you can do or be anything you choose. We know you will continue to be successful at whatever you do. Enjoy these next few years and don't rush life! We know you wish Mam and Pap Humbert were here with you but don't forget they are here and will always be with you in your heart!!! Remember, we are always here for you no matter what! We love you very much!

Mom, Dad, Cody, Shell, Eric, Tyler, Mama & Papa Zirkle

April,

I can't believe that I'm sitting here writing this. You've grown up so fast, too fast. I'm not ready to let go yet.

I'm so proud of all that you've accomplished and the kind and giving person that you've become.

You've worked hard and always given 100% of yourself. The possibilities in your future are endless. You can be and do all that you dream. I'm not worried about the choices you'll make. You've always chosen the right path and I don't see that ability or quality changing.

I pray that God will always watch over and protect you, when I'm not there to do it myself.

I am so very proud of you. I love you more than you will ever know!

With all my love,
Mom

IN LOVING MEMORY OF JOAN CASSELL

Joan Cassell was a beloved member of the cafeteria staff at Powell Valley High School. Her biscuits were the best in Southwest Virginia. Besides being a great cook, she always shared her smile with all the students,teachers and staff. She had great joy and love of life that filled everyone's heart that knew her. She spent 19 dedicated years at Powell Valley High. Our hearts are heavy losing Joan, but we know her faith has brought her to a better place.

Proverbs 3: 3-6
Never forget to be truthful and kind. Hold these virtues tightly. Write them deep within your heart....trust the Lord completely.

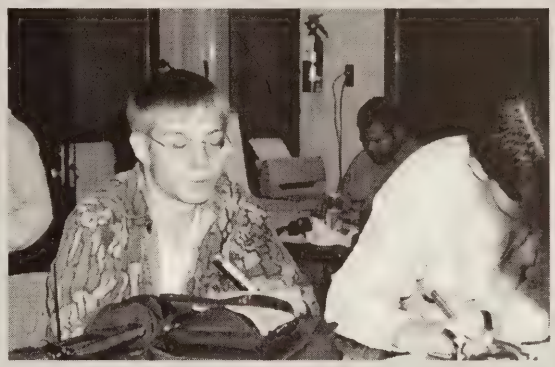
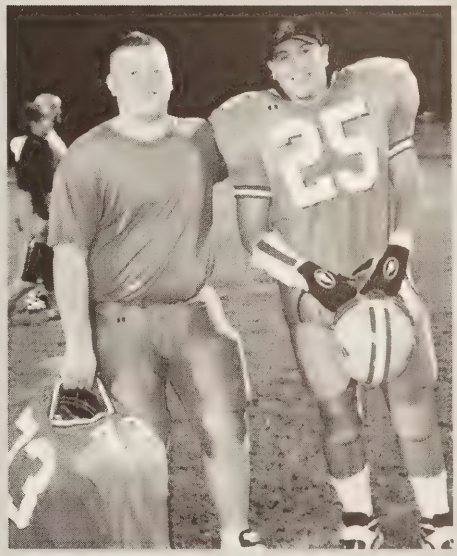
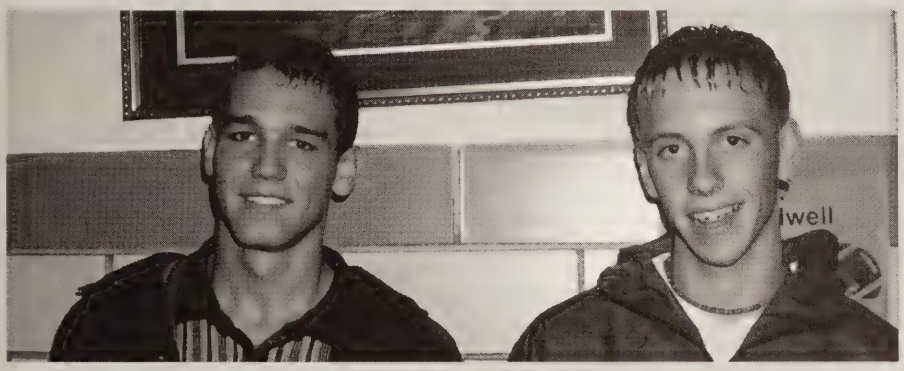
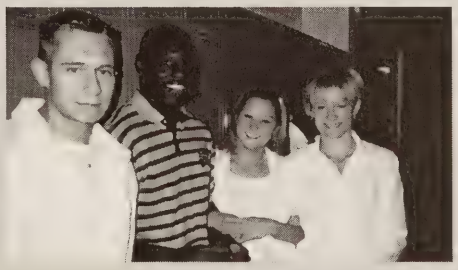
Thanks for The Memories

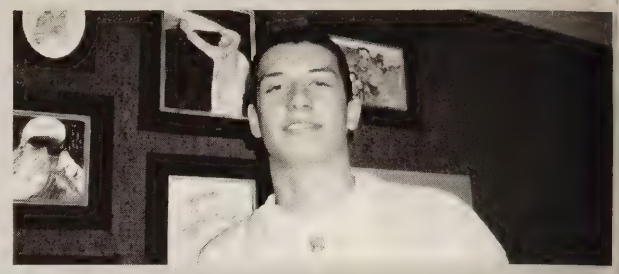








SENIOR



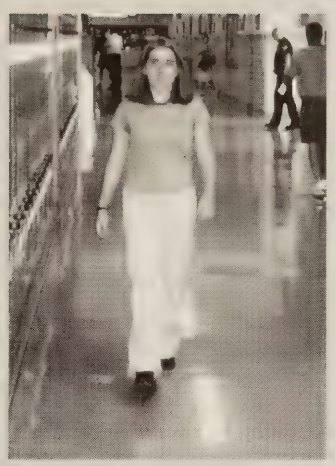
"I'll never forget the time that I fell off the back of the risers at a chorus concert."— Knetris Jones

"I'll always remember the time that April Adkins and I had to dig through the school's dumpsters to find the senior directories that we threw away!"— Leighann Barnette

"One thing I'll remember is our class winning the hall decorating contest three years in a row!"— Tara Beth Sturgill

"I'll miss being tardy every morning for Math Analysis."— Kevin Ward

FACES



"I'll miss being around the people I've been with for the past 13 years. Most of all I'll miss wrestling, and AP History. Good luck Juniors!"— Josh Shoop

"When I first got my learner's permit, my Mom asked me to go outside and park the van. A large group of guys were standing outside watching me. I pulled into the carport and instead of hitting the brakes, I stomped the gas and crashed through the fence into my yard."— Sara Bradshaw

"I'll always remember getting my car stuck in a ditch before the Appalachia football game."— April Adkins
